Kreditor first here to receive NARPM designation

By Jim Goodson

Get There First Realty president Mark Kreditor is the first Dallas County recipient of the National Association of Residential Property Managers' RPM (Residential Property Managers) designation. There are less than 100 such RPM designees nationwide.

"It is truly a great honor to be the first in our area to receive this honor," Kreditor said. His Get There First Realty is one of Dallas' largest

Mark Kreditor

On the Business Scene: Mark Kreditor, president of Get There First Realty, has received the first Dallas County Residential Property Managers (RPM) designation from the National Association of Residential Property Managers. Kreditor is the first property manager in Dallas County to earn this distinction which is shared by less than 100 property managers nationwide.

The NARPM awards the RPM designation on both a potential candidate's education in the field of residential property management as well as his or her service to NARPM. Recently Kreditor taught classes for The Greater Dallas Association of Realtors and also at the NARPM national convention in San Francisco. Currently he serves as Chairman of the Property Management and Leasing Committee of The Greater Dallas Association of Realtors. Starting in 1981, he established a niche for his firm in the real estate market by servicing rental properties owned by individuals.

Kreditor, an accomplished pianist and entertainer, resides in Dallas with his wife and two daughters. He teaches music at his daughter's pre-school and often performs "oldies" concerts at local old age homes. He also enjoys running and has completed 11 marathons.
