Mark,

I cannot say enough good things about Get There First Realty. They do a great job managing my property and communicating with both me and the tenant. However, if I was to pick one area they excel over all other management firms, it would be their marketing and advertising of my property.. I have had three renters in my house over the past 6 years roughly, and because of their excellent marketing exposure, it has never taken more than 10 days to get my house re-rented with quality applicants.

Keep up the great work.

Sincerely,

Shawn McConnell – New York City
