RE: Kansas City Convention

Dear Mark:

I just wanted to drop you a note to tell you how much I appreciate your constant devotion to our trade association. Your class on managing the Psycho Personality & Marketing outside the "Box" you gave in Kansas City was brilliant, informative, and motivational. Your knowledge of our profession and incredible marketing techniques sets you high above other property managers.

The hard work and detail that you and your office must give your clients and customers has to be the highest level available in our industry. I work hard each and every day to provide service to our clients and customers using information I learned from your seminars and meetings. I know that if I were ever as great a property manager as you, I would surely dominate my local market in Orlando.

Thanks again for the countless investments that you make in our industry by helping to raise the professionalism of residential property managers.

Sincerely,

Fred Thompson RMP
Director of Property Management
